THREE CENTS

FIRE SWEEPS FORTY-STORY BUILDING IN NEW YORK

WELLSVILLE MAN SOUGHT HERE FOR SHOOTING CHARGE

Mike Graham Shot while On
Way to Work; Wounds
May Be Fatal.

FIVE SHOTS TAKE EFFECT IN BODY

Three Men on Veranda when
Shots Rang Out, Says
Wounded Man.

Salem police are aiding Wellsville police and county authorities in the search for Antonio Sazzo, an Italian, whom the Wellsville police believe to be the man who shot and probably fatally wounded Mike "Graham," an other Italian, on Commerce St., Wellsville, about 7 a. m. Tuesday.

Up to noon today the Italian name of the man who was shot had not been obtained. He was known as Graham and while on his way to work one of three men, standing on a veranda above a butcher shop on the opposite side of the street, pulled a revolver and fired five times, each shot taking effect.

Graham was shot in the abdomen, arms and back, and is in the East Liverpool City hospital in a serious condition. Physicians hold out little hope for his recovery.

The man, who is married and has five children, was a Wellsville resident, and two weeks ago had a quarrel with Antonio Sazzo, who, the police believe, was the man who tried to murder Graham.

The three men fled after the shooting, and by the time persons attracted by the shots had scoured the neighborhood and had called the police, no trace of the assailant could be found.

Graham, outside of saying there were three men, would not talk, but the police immediately sent to Lisbon and Salem descriptions of Sazzo and asked that he be picked up. Wellsville was combed for him and Italian homes searched but he could not be located.

Following receipt of word of the attempted murder, Prosecuting Attorney R. M. Brookes left his home at East Liverpool and hurried to the scene. He is directing the investigation of the shooting.

Patrolman Paul Heckert of the Salem police force, who received the call here, watched incoming cars and trains but no one of the descriptions furnished came here. The police are continuing their watch here, however.

Deputies under Sheriff George Wright are combing country districts where they believe Sazzo may be in hiding.

SCOUTS RE-UNION OF KIP AND ALICE

Rhinelanders' Counsel Says
Reconciliation Is Ut-
terly Impossible

Meintosh, Fla., Feb. 16.—A reconciliation between Leonard Kip Rhineland and his mulatto bride, Alice Jones Rhineland, is "utterly impossible," in the belief of Judge Isaac N. Mills, counsel for Rhineland during the sensational court attempt of the young millionaire to free himself from the union.

Judge Mills, on a hunting vacation here, today said that although nothing would surprise him after the truce between the Stillmans he would be "amazed" should the Rhinelanders follow the Stillman course. Judge Mills was Mrs. Stillman's counsel also.

"Knowing young Rhineland as I do, I would say that a peaceful re-union with his wife is utterly impossible," Mills declared.

Reports from New York that he would have an important announcement peering upon the case to make upon his return there puzzled the lawyer.

"I don't know what that can mean," he said. "For the next step in the case as far as I know is merely awaiting court action on my motion for a new trial."

Dress Well But Not Swell Is Advice Offered Mere Man By America's Best Dressed Man

Note: To be judged "America's best dressed man" was the honor bestowed upon George H. Wright, of Huntington, W. Va., at the National Retail clothiers convention in New York in 1924. He was selected again at the convention in Chicago in 1925. More than 2,500 well dressed men representing practically every city in the United States competed for the honor.

Mr. Wright is in Columbus attending the Ohio Retail Clothiers association convention. The following is his own style message to men.

By GEORGE H. WRIGHT
Columbus, Feb. 16.—Dress well but not swell.

That is the secret of good dress, in my opinion. The best dressed men of today are those who wear clothes that fit their form and figure; clothes that blend in every detail both in color and in fabric.

Colors are good if they are blended correctly. Gaudy colors are not as a rule good, due to the fact that few men know enough about colors to blend them correctly.

But that is where the progressive merchant of today comes in. If he is on his job he will have experts in his store that are able to advise their customers concerning their dress for all occasions.

Acquitted In Murder Case, Man's Friends Kiss, Jabber Thanks

Akron, Feb. 16.—An amazing exhibition of Southern Europe's manner of showing delight occurred in Judge E. H. Boylan's court when a jury returned a not guilty verdict in the murder trial of Isadore Dolein, better known as Mike Dolin.

He was charged with killing Lewis Vokovich, gas station attendant in Vokovich, on the night of April 25, 1924.

The trial lasted two weeks. Dolin's friends shouted and kissed each other and him in their delight, then rushed to the bench and upon Dolin's attorney, C. G. Roedel, shaking and kissing their hands and jabbering gratitude in their own language.

MEN IN NIGHTIES FAIL IN PROTEST

Robed Klansmen would Stop
Priest's Teachings;
Board Stands Pat

Toledo, Feb. 16.—A status quo existed today in the break between the Toledo school board and the Ku Klux Klan which protested against the teaching of religion by a Catholic priest in the local public schools.

The priest instructs Catholic pupils one hour a week in the Birmingham school.

Fifty robed klansmen invaded the meeting of the school board last night and lodged an emphatic protest against the priest's teaching in school.

"There is one priest teaching Catholicism during school hours," the Klan leader said. "This is unfair to the Protestants who are denied the teaching of the Bible during school hours. Therefore as American citizens and living under the Stars and Stripes of the United States of America, we ask that this instruction of religion be stopped. We ask for an answer at once."

After Supt. Meeks admitted the charges were true and stated: "We would release Protestant children as well for religious instruction one hour a week, if the request were made." J. D. Robinson, acting president of the school board, said to the klansmen: "A protest coming in this form doesn't appeal to me. If you want to make a protest, come out in the open."

Capt. Fairfax also asked the foreign office to institute negotiations with the United States to insure that the granting of a visa by an American consul is final guarantee of entry of a foreign citizen, unless an offense against the immigration laws is committed after the visa has been granted.

Women have been studying style and colors in dress for years. Men should follow their lead.

And Albert Ferren
Are Candidates

John T. Burns of this city, former county clerk, today announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for county auditor.

He was clerk of courts at Lisbon from 1921 to 1925, coming to Salem from Lisbon at the expiration of his term last summer.

Three Republicans are now entered in the race for county auditor to succeed Charles E. Hamilton, present auditor. Elmer E. Walker of Damascus, present deputy auditor who has served in that capacity for two terms by appointment, is a known candidate for his chief's office. Albert W. Ferren, former mayor of East Palestine, also is a candidate.

AMERICAN BUILDING SETS NEW RECORDS

New Constructions Exceed
Preceding Year Total
By 26 Per Cent

Washington, Feb. 16.—American building, regarded by economists as the surest barometer of the prosperity of the country, broke all records for normal years in 1925, the federal reserve board announced today.

New constructions amounted to approximately $6,600,000,000 and exceeded that of 1924 by 26 percent.

Experts consider the enormous building activities mainly responsible for business advances of a year already marked by the greatest industrial productivity in history.

Among the remarkable features of the board's survey was the fact that award of contracts in December was 11 percent higher than the preceding month. Normally contracts fall off the last month of the year.

It is regarded as important that the building industry is losing some of its seasonal characteristics. Stimulated by the activities of Secretary of Commerce Hoover, who pointed to seasonal industry as among the causes for sharp ups and downs in the economic cycle, contractors in every state apparently are seeking to spread their operations over the entire 12 months.

For all federal reserve districts, excluding the far west, building activities in December increased over December, 1924, from $239,000,000 to $259,000,000. Increases were shown for all but the Cleveland district. In New York the year's jump was 19 percent.

Estimated construction costs for contemplated projects in 26 states during the year aggregated $8,825,000,000. This is interpreted by the federal reserve board as indicating another record will be established by building contractors this year.

FLAMES DAMAGE EQUITABLE LIFE INSURANCE HOME

Two Top Stories Destroyed
And Two Others Are
Partly Wrecked

OFFICES IN GREAT BUILDING WRECKED

Fire Is Featured By Most Spectacular Rescue In
New York History

New York, Feb. 16.—A spectacular fire swept through the 10-story Equitable Life Insurance building today, burning seven firemen and one workman and causing heavy property damage.

A fire apparatus in Manhattan was engulfed in the fire.

The thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth stories of the building were destroyed and the twenty-third and thirty-sixth stories partly wrecked.

The building is one of the largest in the world.

The fire broke out at 4:30 this morning and raged for hours. It was brought under control shortly before 8 o'clock.

The heaviest loss was suffered by the American Smelting & Refining Co., whose valuable property on the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth floors was destroyed.

Many offices in the great building was wrecked by fire and water.

The fire started in a pipe shaft which runs from the basement of the building to the roof. The flames burst forth from the shaft at various floors and tried the utmost efforts of the fire fighters.

One of Sights of New York
Four alarms were sounded, bringing all the fire apparatus of Manhattan, and some from Brooklyn and adjoining boroughs to the scene. Fire Chief Kenlon personally directed the fighting of the flames.

For a time it was feared that this roof, new modern structure would suffer the fate that befell the old equitable building which was destroyed by fire in 1912.

The new Equitable building, one of the sights of New York, has 5,500 windows and 65 elevators.

The fire was featured by one of the most spectacular rescues in the history of the department. Four men trapped in a three-story pent house on the roof of the towering structure were rescued by firemen who held ladders on their shoulders to make them reach an eight-inch ledge, to which the men had tied to escape the terrific heat. The rescued men were plumbers.

Chief Kenlon described the fire as "the highest the world has known." Fortunately, the fire broke out before the army of workers were in the various offices of the building. More than 300,000 are said to enter the building daily.

The fire was caused, it is believed, by a short circuit in the shaft. The amount of property damage could not be accurately estimated.

There will be local meetings for the members to elect directors for their localities before the annual meeting. Salem is entitled to two directors, while Leetonia, Columbiana and East Palestine are entitled to one each.

WAR ON CRIMINALS

Civic organizations in Chicago have decided to develop and put in the field in that city an association in aid of criminal justice. The primary purpose of the new agency is to help protect the public from the professional criminal. For years criminals have made war on society in that city and have been defiant of the powers of government, city, state and national. Courts and officials have not been able to correct the lawless and many of the outrageous offenses have gone unpunished. It is no wise surprising that the city should seek additional strength that criminals may be brought to bar.

The mere formation of this new agency means little, even if it is financed to the extent of $500,000, according to reports. Other cities have had such organizations at work for years, spent large sums of money, but have not abolished crime or prevented crimes of violence in the streets and about the institutions. Such an agency can be made powerful and may be immensely important but to have any positive advantage for the public there is need of skillful and wise direction.

The measure of good for the community from such an organization depends largely on the quality and caliber of men in control. Usually the plan is to employ a director. That individual may take his task seriously and put real work under way. In some places the position has been taken as a snug berth for a glib speaker, who makes addresses at social and civic gatherings, becomes very much of a glorified publicity promoter, often for himself, but fails to make his work, or the force of his organization, add to the courage of officials or gave strength to the administration of law in the courts.

If the volunteer organizations, in opposition to professional criminals are to become leaders in promoting public safety they must adopt practical methods, direct their appeals to public sentiment stand by officials and courts, champion public rights, always as supporters of the established agencies of government. If the committee in charge merely holds long meetings, makes some solemn resolutions, issues some well written manifestos that are only clever publicity, the funds for the support of the organization will be largely wasted. A live organization has a real value.

BORN LUCKY

It was Thomas A. Edison's good fortune to be born with an overpowering addiction for work. No heart ever panted for the water brook as he yearned for whatever job happened to be in hand. The racetrack, the golf course and the baseball game had no lure for him. Instead of looking forward to quitting time he ignored it. Now and then he would snatch a little sleep—probably more often than he is willing to admit—but he always begrudged the time it consumed.

To Edison, labor which other men regarded as an evil, became recreation. He was always too busy to worry, so that ecceasing constituent had no power to harm him. As a consequence he could and did perform prodigies of labor in the busy years of his life and is still hale and hearty at seventy, taking a vacation only because his friends insist upon it.

The average man does not like to eat his bread in the sweat of his face. He toils tremendously by fits and starts. Then he goes fishing or hunting or mountain climbing or touring, according to his financial ability. Some of America's greatest hustlers have been also the world's greatest loafers. Others, too conscientious to take frequent vacations, have worn themselves out at the job. Edison never tires because he is always interested. His is a lucky life. If all men were like him this would be a happier world.

State Societies

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Washington, Feb. 16.—Perhaps one of the most distinctive social phases of Washington, is represented in the various state societies flourishing here. Unquestionably no other city in the United States has a population made up so largely of natives of other localities.

Since the World war, which brought so many to this city, this seems particularly true. When, in response to the query "where are you from?" a person replies, "here," the inquirer is apt to register surprise and marmur, "how strange!" It is but natural that those from distant states should long for companionship with others from the same states. It relieves that feeling of homesickness to be able to discuss the affairs and mutual friends of the hometown. Who does not enjoy a "do you remember" party? The various state societies are a direct outgrowth of the universal desire to mingle with the home folks. When met in some distant place one's dearest enemy may become one's nearest friend.

As far as can be learned there are now between 20 and 25 of these state organizations. For the most part they are social organizations and exist for the purpose of bringing together those from the same state. As a rule they have monthly meetings during the congressional session. These may consist of a party having a musical program, a speaker and supper, or may be a dance, card party or some special sort of celebration.

Vermont claims to be the first of these societies, having been organized in 1880, although one active worker in state societies says he found a record at the library of congress of a similar society as early as 1820. However, nothing definite can be found regarding this.

Organized Like Town Council.—Whether the Vermont society was the first or not, it is unique in its present organization. Also it seems as members such distinguished persons as President and Mrs. Coolidge, and Atty. Gen. and Mrs. Sargent. About five years ago the Vermont society was re-organized on lines of a town council. Its president is therefore called a moderator, the secretary is the town clerk and there is a town treasurer and collector of taxes. There is also a "constable". Atty. Gen. Sarout has a post similar to that which he filled for years in his home town council. It bears the imposing title of "dispenser of nourishment," and means that he is the guardian of pure food.

California claims one of the pioneer societies. The Californians organized in 1894 "to cement into a bond of closer friendship those Californians residing in Washington and to assist in the progress and development of our glorious state." There were 15 Californians at the first meeting which was held at the old Biggs House, long since demolished. Out of this 15 there are two members still living in Washington.

The Pennsylvania society is said to be one of the largest and has on its roster the names of three members of the cabinet—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, Secretary of the Interior Work, and Secretary of Labor Davis. Incidentally, it might be stated here that Secretary Work is a member of the Colorado society as well since he lived in that state a great many years. He is a member of the Pennsylvania state society by virtue of having been born and reared in that state.

The Ohio state society was organized in 1910 under the auspices of William Howard Taft, who is its present president. Unlike a great many societies which began in a modest way with only a few members, this has 200 charter members. The birthday of this society—Jan. 1—was also that of William McKinley and ever since its formation an annual banquet has been held in that city. At this banquet is held those citizens who became president of their country.

Q. Which city is the largest, Moline, Rock Island, or Davenport? C. T. A. The populations of the three cities mentioned in 1920 were: Moline, Ill., 33,910; Rock Island, Ill., 49,073; Davenport, Ia., 61,262. All of these are fast growing cities.

Q. When a lightning stroke hits a rod building is there a report or is the shock carried off silently? C. M. M.

A. When lightning stroke occurs on a rod building, thunder will follow. However, at least 98 per cent of the value of a system of lightning rods is in the function of allowing the electrical emergency to fuse off from the points of the lightning rods, thus preventing the high electrical stress between cloud and earth, and when this is prevented the stroke is prevented. Lightning rods allow the current to pass or fuse off from the rods, leaving the building in a normal electrical condition, yet there is a possibility of a lightning stroke which if it should occur would be much fiercer than without any means of protection, and the rods should carry this stroke to the ground.

Q. Are many Indians employed by the Bureau of Indian Affairs? C. M. A. A total of 1703 Indians are employed with annual salaries amounting to almost $2,000,000.

Q. From which direction are the prevailing winds in tropical countries? C. L. K.

AMUNDSEN SAYS HE'LL FIND POLE

Noted Explorer Confident
His 1926 Flight Will
Be Successful

Los Angeles, Feb. 16.—Capt. Roald Amundsen, noted explorer, is confident his 1926 non-stop dash to the North Pole will be crowned with success.

Further, he believes that vegetable and animal life exists at the pole and possibly that human descendants of families on whaling ships lost in the frozen north years ago may inhabit the polar regions.

Amundsen is interested, naturally, in locating the magnetic pole and the discovery of land in the far north and exploration of that vast unknown territory has a great appeal to him, the famed explorer declared.

"Geographical research with the principal object of the 1926 flight," he said, "is to start May 1."

Amundsen's attempt for the pole discovery will start from Nome about May 1, Lincoln Ellsworth, the American, who was associated with the explorer in his unsuccessful plunge into the north last year, will be his associate in the new attempt.

"Col. C. S. Noble, noted Italian flyer, will pilot the ship in our new flight," the explorer said. "The ship is 105 yards in length and is equipped with three engines of 250 horsepower."

The expedition will be made of 18 men, a derelict about one-third of the ill-fated Shenandoah will carry the Amundsen party. From Nome the explorers will fly to Paris, then to London, across the ocean to the American continent and then to Spitzbergen, where a hangar and mooring mast are now under construction.

Capt. Amundsen declared the flight from Spitzbergen over the North Pole should not take more than 65 hours.

Land For Norway

Any land discovered on the flight will be claimed in the name of Norway, the exploration being made directly under the auspices of the Aero Club of Oslo, Norway.

Capt. Amundsen declared he would not be a bit surprised to find human life at the pole or in the close vicinity.

He discussed the wrecking of many whaling boats in the icebound regions and said he did not think it improbable some of the shipwrecked families had escaped death and settled in the far north.

More than 100 whalers have disappeared in the region which will be covered in part of the new flight, the explorer said.

Brill was the first man to be taken into custody when Judge Kilbitt ordered a probe of alleged jury tampering during the second trial of Kirby and is the fifth to be indicted.

PEOPLE WILL SHOP AND COMPARE

Our advertisements are causing a lot of comment, because we do not quote prices or mention merchandise. In fact, we believe that we are the only Furniture store in this section that does not advertise prices or hold "sales" etc.

Our argument is that people will shop and compare—and that's all we want. Prices and merchandise here will speak for themselves. What's the use of broadcasting elaborate descriptions and bargain prices that only sound good on paper and that can be said by anyone who pays for advertising space.

We quote no prices, we give no descriptions, print no misleading statements, in fact we tell you nothing about our furniture—but we do leave the decision entirely to you, after you have visited our show rooms.

SCHOOL CLASSES TO GIVE CONCERT

Announcement Is Made As Four Seniors Speak At Assembly

The music classes of the High school under the direction of the music instructor, Miss Grace P. Orr, will give a concert in the High school auditorium tonight.

This announcement was made by principal W. E. Simpson at the assembly of the students Tuesday morning. Tickets for the concert can be obtained, free of charge, from any member of the music classes.

Four more senior speeches dealing with opera, women in politics, submarines and radios were given this morning.

The first speaker was Bernice Dickinson, who chose for her subject "The Story of Faust, the Opera." She stated that "Faust" is one of the most beautiful operas, and she gave a very good account of the origin of the opera.

Dorothy Dougher talked on, "Women and Politics." "In the early times," said Miss Dougher, "women held the position of slaves. Connecticut was the first state to give suffrage to women and it took many years of hard work to convince the United States that women should be in politics. Their ideals for the betterment of mankind and world peace are better than those of men," stated the speaker.

A most interesting talk was given by Clarence Davidson on "Submarines." Contrary to our belief that the submarine is a recent invention, said the speaker, "the first submarines were known about 400 B. C., but these, however, were useless in fighting. They have reached such an advanced stage that they are now important in naval warfare." Mr. Davidson predicted that in the next 20 years the submarines would be used for freight and passenger service.

"Amateur Transmitters," was the subject discussed by Robert Davis. There are at present about 500,000 amateur transmitters. "If it had not been for these," he said, "we would not have some of the many conveniences of radio today. Amateurs should be given some consideration."

NEED BIG HALL IF 125 PERSONS FACE THE COURT

Cleveland, Feb. 16.—If, as the government expects 125 persons are indicted for conspiracy, in connection with the operations of an alleged nationwide conspiracy, officials in the federal building were wondering today where they would be tried.

It was pointed out that according to present plans but one indictment would be returned and it was planned to try all defendants at the same time.

The Public Hall, seating 13,000 persons, was said to be about the only place in Cleveland with ample facilities for prisoners, court attendants, witnesses, newspaper men and the curious throngs, and it was said that in all likelihood it would be engaged.

A number of witnesses, including two women, arrived from Philadelphia today to appear before the grand jury in connection with the probe. The jury, however, was busy with the jury tampering investigation and did not hear any of them.

HELEN'S FATHER SEES DIFFERENT SCORE NEXT TIME

Berkeley, Cal., Feb. 16.—"Helen will play better next time. She is bound to win eventually. I look for a different result at Wimbledon in June."

This was the comment made by Dr. C. A. Willis, Berkeley physician, and father of the American tennis ace, when told today that his daughter had been defeated by Mlle. Lenglen, 6-3 and 8-6.

Dr. Willis listened to the running description of the match over the radio.

Town Clock Keeping Good Time But Big Hammer Won't Strike

Persons who listen to the striking of the clock in the tower of City Hall have been noticing its quietness for several days, and will continue to miss its tolling for a short time, at least. The frame which holds the hammer rig has rotted after many years of service and the hammer will not strike.

"Old Reliable" itself is working the same as usual, within a second or two of the correct time, if not exactly on the dot. Loren French local scientist and astronomer, who takes care of the big timepiece, said today. The wooden frame several decades ago became so rotten it could not support the hammer, and Mr. French, who inspects the clock each day, decided to wait until more moderate weather would have to be done.

In the ten years or so that Mr. French has been in charge of the clock it has seldom failed to tell the correct time and run out the time of day. "It's a good clock and it's still working good," the caretaker said today.

Miss Wills Defeated In Women's Doubles

Cannes, France, Feb. 16.—Though evidently suffering from exhaustion, Mlle. Lenglen, with the aid of her partner, Mlle. Didi Vlasto, his afternoon made her day of victory complete, defeating Helen Wills and Mlle. Contoslavos 6-4 and 8-6 in the finals of the women's doubles of the Carlton club tournament.

Miss Wills and her partner, were both in fine fettle but even so they were not quite equal to the skill of the two best women tennis players of France.

Dream Saves Lives of Eight

Miss Fern Hodson, 20, "waking up from a vivid dream in which she was trapped by fire, discovered the Hodson home in Kansas City, Mo., was ablaze, and was able by her courage to save the lives of eight other members of the family before the house fell in ruins.

NAVAL AVIATION PLANS APPROVED

Washington, Feb. 16.—The house naval affairs committee today tentatively approved a five-year naval aviation program calling for the expenditure of $100,000,000 for 1,000 planes and two dirigibles, which would be three times the size of the wrecked Shenandoah.

The total appropriation was about three fifths of the amount originally asked for by Rear Admiral William A. Moffett, chief of naval aeronautics.

RAILROADS MAKE NEW RECORD FOR FREIGHT MOVED

Washington, Feb. 16.—Heaviest freight traffic of any December in history was handled in the final month of last year by the Class I railroads, the bureau of railway economics announced today.

The total was 37,868,884,000 net ton miles, an increase of 2,863,136,000 net ton miles, or 8.2 percent, over December 1924.

The eastern district showed an increase of 8.5 percent, the southern district, 11 percent, the western district, 6.6 percent.

Volume of freight in 1925 was 456,264,967,000 net ton miles.

TRAIN'S PLUNGE OVER HILL KILLS ONE PASSENGER

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 16.—One man was killed and another perhaps fatally injured when the engine and six cars of No. 19, crack Lehigh Valley express train, plunging between New York and Buffalo, plunged over an embankment at Newport crossing ten miles from here, today.

New Radio Tube Makes Battery 'A' Unnecessary

Cumbersome "A" battery is made unnecessary by a new radio vacuum tube developed by A. N. Lucian, assistant professor of physics in University of Pennsylvania. It uses 110-volt alternating current and cannot burn out, since it has no filament, meaning a big saving in radio fans.

What was said to be the first radio exhibit ever held in China took place recently at Shanghai. It was promoted by the International Amateur Radio Association of China and was well attended.

SALEM AT WELLSVILLE FRIDAY; ALLIANCE HIGH COMES HERE SATURDAY

Wellsville and Alliance are the next teams on the Salem High cage schedule, and the Alliance game is chalked down right now as one of the toughest, if not the hardest, game of the season.

Friday, both Boys and Girls teams go to Wellsville for return games with the Orange and Black, and on Saturday night the Boys play at home against the Red and Blue of Alliance in the first basketball game between the two schools in a long time.

The Girls of Alliance have no team so the Salem sextet will be without an opponent that night. However, Faculty Manager R. P. Vickers has booked the Alliance part-time students team for the Salem Boys' game. This will be the preliminary to the big game.

The Red and Black, swinging along at a fast pace, hit the rocks last Saturday, and though the game was hard to lose, it brought the lads face to face with cold facts and may be a big help to them.

A team has to lose sometime, and though it would have been great to go through the season undefeated, the benefits of a defeat oftentimes are many. The five will go into the Wellsville and Alliance games this week in a real business-like manner and get revenge for the setback at Akron.

On their own floor Wellsville is no team for any team, even as strong as Salem, and it would not be surprising to see a close game. Salem of course must win from Wellsville to continue to lead the county race. The Girls will have a hard time, also, for the Wellsville six trimmed Columbia last week, and Columbiana won from Salem. Salem defeated Wellsville here early in the season but the Orange are a far different combination now.

One of the surprising things in the county race last week was the defeat of the East Palestine Girls by Lisbon. The Brown had been going at such a good pace it had been expected Palestine would repeat the victory it obtained over Lisbon earlier in the season. The result places both teams in a tie for first place.

The Columbiana Boys won from Wellsville, as was expected, and Palestine trimmed Lisbon in a close game.

Friday's games this week are the Salem-Wellsville, and Lisbon-Columbiana frays.

The county race at present stands as follows:

STANDING OF TEAMS
Boys	G.	W.	L.
Salem	5	5	0
East Liverpool	5	4	1
East Palestine	7	5	2
Lisbon	7	2	5

SUZANNE DEFEATS MISS WILLS ONLY AFTER HARD FIGHT

American Girl Surpasses Expectations of Warmest Supporters.

Cannes, France, Feb. 16.—Suzanne still reigns.

The unconquered French champion today won one of the hardest battles of her career when she defeated Helen Wills, American champion, 6-3, 8-6.

The indomitable courage of Helen of Berkeley was not quite equal to the experienced skill of Suzanne of Nice.

The American girl surpassed the expectations of even her warmest supporters, taking nine games out of 23. The French flash won the first set 6-3, only after a hard struggle at the end of which she was in a highly nervous state and apparently badly worn. She went into the second set to face the stiffest fight which she has had for more than seven years.

The Californian was in her best fighting mood. The crowds were tense with excitement. The match saw-sawed back and forth and reached a climax in the twelfth game.

Suzanne at this point had a 6-5 lead and was within a point of winning the match. A linesman called one of her drives in. The crowd thought the match had finished and started to leave the grandstand. Another linesman protested the decision, which was finally reversed, the point going to Miss Wills. Then the bulldog courage of the American girl displayed itself.

There were wild howls from the crowds outside who were under the impression that their Suzanne had been given a bad decision. Despite the uproar the California girl smashed out and won the game, making it six all. There was great excitement in the stands when an American in the crowds shouted out: "Ten thousand dollars even money on Wills."

The tennis historians will probably say that Suzanne won by a stumble. The inability of Miss Wills to keep her feet gave the French girl the advantage in the climax of the match.

the fourteenth game on the second set. This game had reached deuce and Miss Wills was playing like one inspired. She rushed to meet a drive from the French girl and stumbled.

The stumble gave the advantage point to Suzanne. This may have changed the whole tide of the game, despite the fact that Suzanne double faulted on the next point, making it deuce again. But the superchampion, Suzanne, had her barely shattered confidence restored. She went back to the baselines and with two beautifully placed drives won the necessary two points to win the match.

The fatal stumble made by Miss Wills at the crux in the match, shook her up and threw her off her game, her supporters claimed.

TOOL ROOM SLIPS INTO BOTTOM IN MULLINS LEAGUE

There was a wailing in the Mullins bowling league last week as the Office apparently secure in last place, were aroused by their ejection from the cellar by the Tool Room, erstwhile leaders.

The Millwrights continued in the lead by taking three games from the Tool Room, and this gave the latter team the chance to go into last place. The Polishers took two of three games from the Office, and the Press Room snatched two out of three from the Fender Weld.

TEAMS ARE PAIRED FOR CAGE TOURNEY

Lisbon Meets E. Palestine In Prelims; Columbiana, Rogers Draw Byes

Pairing for first games in the Columbiana County Class B Boys basketball tourney to be held on Salem High's neutral floor Feb. 26 and 27, are announced by R. P. Vickers, faculty manager of Salem High, who is the official manager of the tourney.

Columbiana and Rogers drew byes. Fairfield drew Sallineville and East Palestine drew Lisbon.

These two games will be played Friday night, Feb. 26, the first at 7:30 p. m.

Columbiana will play the winner of the Fairfield-Sallineville game, and Rogers meets the winner of the Palestine-Lisbon game Saturday morning, Feb. 27, the first game to be at 9 a. m.

The two surviving teams will clash at 2:30 p. m. Saturday, Feb. 27, in the finals. If Manager Vickers books a preliminary, the final game will follow this extra game.

Games will be of seven minute quarters, except the final which will be of eight minutes. Final players certified to the manager may be on each squad for actual participation in the game.

Ten percent of the gross receipts go to the state association, and the balance, after all bills are paid, will be divided among the contesting teams.

Suitable trophies, in the form of a basketball charm, will be awarded the eight members of the winning team.

SENIORS DOWNED BY JUNIOR GIRLS IN CLASS LEAGUE

Junior Girls defeated the Seniors in the interclass game Monday noon in the High school gym by a 6-4 score. Both sides did little shooting at the basket. The game was marred by the many had passes and poor offense of both teams.

The first quarter looked as if the Seniors would break their long losing streak but they soon slumped again. Last week was not a week of many changes. Both leaders kept up their records. The Senior boys had a close call when they were defeated by Juniors Thursday but the game was forfeited to the Seniors on account of ineligible players on the Junior team.

The second round may result in many upsets. The weaker teams are now rounding into shape and will give the leaders plenty of trouble.

LOOK for the silver lining in every P. A. smoke-cloud. Notice how the little old world takes on a rosier tint when you pick P. A. for a pal. For a fact, Men, Prince Albert holds options on jimmy-pipe joy in every land. It's got a half-nelson on pipe-pleasure, and no mistake.

There's no deep, dark secret about the why of all this . . . P. A. is great tobacco. Time-tested. Tongue-tested. Mild as a May morning, cool as a breeze off the water, P. A. can't tamper with your tongue or pester your palate. (The Prince Albert process cuts out bite and parch.)

When that cool, fragrant smoke percolates up the pipe-stem, troubles take to the tall timber. Pipe-peevish vanishes in a P. A. smoke-screen. You're sitting on top of the world . . . and the view is simply grand. Just never was a tobacco like good old P. A.

Many a man who thought he never could smoke a pipe is now a loyal P. A. fan. You see, the tobacco makes all the difference in the world. Right now, head for the nearest shop where they hand out P. A. sunshine in tidy red tins. Get next to some really friendly tobacco.

AT THE STATE

A sparkling, delicately wrought farcical tale is "The Grand Duchess and the Waiter," which captured a first-night audience yesterday at the State with its scintillating action, superb acting and direction.

This is the Paramount film version of the French stage success by Alfred Savoir, which Pierre Collings adapted and which Malcolm St. Clair has produced with subtlety and sumptuousness.

Adolphe Menjou and Florence Vidar are the central characters in the fun-filled story, which details the exploits of a rich Parisian Beau Brummell, who masquerades as a waiter in order to be near the outwardly haughty, inwardly emotional, Grand Duchess, who has caught his fancy.

Peter, The Great, the new marvel dog of the screen, comes to the State Wednesday in his latest thrilling starring picture, "Wild Justice."

Filmed in the lonely snow country of the high Sierras, "Wild Justice" presents a rapid succession of exciting events against the majestic background of the snow-clad hills.

The story revolves around a mysterious murder, and presents Peter The Great in an almost-human role. The great dog performs miracles of athletic prowess and demonstrates amazing intelligence.

Stop Night Cough This New Way

Quick Relief Through Simple Treatment

Thousands who have been unable to sleep nights due to irritating night coughing can now obtain practically instant relief and sleep soundly the very first night—through a simple but wonderfully effective treatment.

This treatment is based on the prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You take just one teaspoonful at bed-time and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly removes the phlegm and congestion which are the real cause of night coughing. So with the throat soothed and cleared, coughing stops quickly, you sleep undisturbed, and the entire cough condition soon disappears.

Dr. King's New Discovery is for coughs, chest colds, sore throat, hoarseness, bronchitis, spasmodic croup, etc. Fine for children as well as grown-ups—no harmful drugs. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. At all good druggists. Ask for

LEETONIA

The annual Sophomore-Freshman party of the Leetonia High school was held Friday evening in the Home-Economics class room in the High school building. The Sophomores were hosts to the Freshman class and most royally they did their parts.

Superintendent of Schools E. P. Stonebraker, John Clements, Miss Amy Shinn, and Miss Alice Clark, of the High school faculty, chaperoned the young people, of whom 75 were present. The evening was spent in games for the early part of the evening and later dancing was enjoyed. A delightful lunch was served with numbers drawn for partners.

There were lucky numbers which drew boxes of candy. The lucky ones were the Misses Ida Mae Lanpher and Anna Ohtnesky, Guy Mauro and Teddy Helt. All the decorations were in the season's emblems of hearts and valentine appointments.

Walter Reynolds, who spent the past week with his brother, P. V. Reynolds, returned to his home in Toronto, Ont., on Saturday. Ernest Withey of New Springfield was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Reynolds on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Elizabeth Minner is visiting with relatives in Sharon, Pa., for a few weeks.

Miss Sara Cunningham of Bellevue, Pa., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Cunningham, Sr.

Mrs. David Fullerton and little son of East Palestine were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Slagle, Somer st., during the past week.

Miss Frances Tittler is confined to her home, Somer st., with an attack of mumps.

Bad Legs Can Now Be Treated At Home

A new treatment which permanently relieves bad legs without staying in bed when doctors and specialists have given the patient up as incurable, must be something out of the ordinary.

The new treatment is known as Moore's Emerald Oil. Every form of bad legs succumbs to this powerful penetrating oil. Varicose veins melt away and together with varicose veins disappear. Swollen and painful legs are reduced and inflammation and irritation become things of the past. Thousands can testify to the benefit they have received. Every sufferer should get a bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil and start the treatment at once. All good druggists have it, but you can be sure to get the genuine at The J. H. Lease Drug Co., Flooding's drug store or Bolger & French.

Middletown—Prof. E. E. Atwell, principal of Jefferson school has resigned to accept appointment as supervisor of departmental work in the grade schools of Akrop. The resignation is effective immediately.

Deep Sea Water Helps Weak Folks Gain Vigor and Strength

Ocean-O is deep sea water distilled and concentrated and in every bottle of this natural health builder you will find the mineral elements that are found in pure healthy blood.

When you are anemic, run down, are nervous and can't get restful sleep—it is probably because your blood needs one or more of the vitalizing elements that Ocean-O contains.

These alkaline mineral elements which modern food has ceased to supply to the blood are the cause of many ailments that lessen your vitality, keep your vigor below par and cause much anxiety to your family and friends.

Besides being a powerful rebuilding agent for the whole system it is a splendid tonic laxative; is fine for gastritis and to improve digestion and is especially valuable where there is faulty nutrition.

Ocean-O, full of life-giving mineral elements, acts through the blood. As soon as it gets into the blood stream it carries to every organ, gland and nerve in the body a rich supply of just the elements needed to create anew the fullest measure of vitality and health.

You can get a 16 ounce bottle of Ocean-O from The J. H. Lease Drug Co., Flodink's drug store, Bolger & French or any druggist with the distinct understanding that if it does not help you wonderfully your money will be returned. As Ocean-O is concentrated and a regular dose is one teaspoonful to one tablespoonful in half a glass of water, a bottle lasts a long time.

Venus Was Overweight; Doctor Should Have Dieted Her

New York, Feb. 16.—Venus de Milo never would have won an American beauty contest because she ate too much and danced not enough.

R. C. Stirtion, president of the H. W. Gossard & Co., so declared to 500 girls and men from 17 states attending the School for Cosmeticians under the direction of Kathryn Cunningham of Chicago, and J. L. Varley of New York.

"If Venus de Milo were reincarnated today she would discover that she was overweight and over-measured," said Stirtion. "Her figure would be passed and her physicians would prescribe a diet and exercise. Her modiste would prescribe reducing garments."

The classical Venus would probably not survive the first elimination trials of a modern beauty contest, Stirtion asserted.

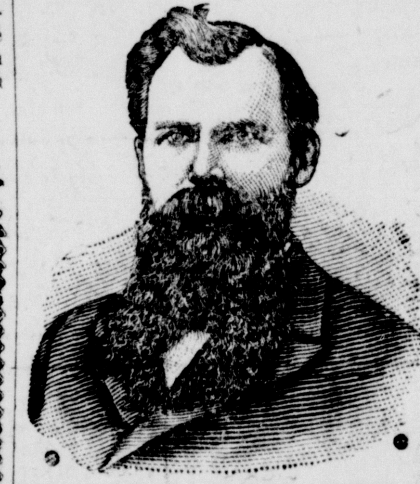

"Judged by present-day standards, Venus would be too generously proportioned, neck, chest, waist, hips, everywhere, she would be altogether too pleasingly plump," he said. "Women didn't indulge in athletics in her day, and the science of dietetics was unknown."

Both in America and in Europe the "musical saw" is the latest popular fancy of the jazz orchestras. The idea of extracting music from such a harsh medium as an ordinary wood saw is said to have originated over 30 years ago in Argentina. There was a drunken violinist playing a saw and placing the handle under his chin, drew his bow across its smooth edge, uncommon for musicians of high reputation to demonstrate their genius by playing on the "musical saw."

Vast Expansion and Advanced Equipment make New Prices Possible

The history of Dodge Brothers drastic price reductions is simple and brief.

A better and better product followed by greater and greater demand.

To meet that demand, an expansion of buildings and equipment involving an expenditure of more than $10,000,000.

Output vastly increased, with consequent reduction in the cost of materials and production.

Installation of advanced labor-saving and quality-increasing equipment. For instance, one giant steel-body press costing $10,000 replaces ten former presses costing $7,500 each, and does the work more efficiently.

Result: The finest line of vehicles in Dodge Brothers history at prices that seem incredible in view of Dodge Brothers traditional quality—

That seem more incredible still when considered in connection with improvements that include—

- Rich and attractive new colors.
- Smart and stylish new body lines.
- Four dependable cylinders.
- Absolute smoothness of engine operation.
- Greater power, snap and elasticity.

And advanced steel body and windshield construction that afford exceptional driving vision at a time when clear vision and safety are paramount in the mind of every motorist.

TODAY'S RECIPES

Buy two pounds of very lean beef of the cheapest cut and one pound of beef bones. Ask the butcher to chop the bones a little with his cleaver. Take a kettle with a close fitting cover, pour in four quarts of water and salt to taste and then add the meat and bones, being careful that they are entirely covered with the liquid. Raise the temperature very slowly and remove the scum that rises to the surface if you wish your soup to be clear. When the kettle's contents come to a boil add a pound each of well scraped carrots, turnips, leeks and a little garlic. Season with black pepper, a bay leaf and a pinch of thyme, put on the lid and let simmer for four hours.

When ready to serve take out the meat and vegetables, drain carefully and arrange them on a platter, putting them where they will keep warm. The soup should be strained carefully to remove all morsels of bone. In each plate put a small sample of each of the vegetables and a slice of crisp bread and over all the soup. Crisp French bread should be served with it.

Bring in the meat and vegetables platter, making sure it has been well drained. With the beef and vegetables should be served a saucer of rock salt that has been beaten with a rolling pin until it is the size of coarsely ground coffee. This salt gives the meat an entirely different flavor than derived from ordinary table salt.

Any green will do for the salad—lettuce, dandelion, romain or chicory. Pick it to pieces, wash well in running water and shake it as dry as you can in the colander. Then put it into a tea towel, gather the four corners together and whirl it at arm's length.

to get rid of all the water possible. Put in bowl with half a dozen sprigs of parsley and about an inch of young onion, the two chopped fine—almost to a paste. Add to bowl. Take a tablespoon, hold over salad bowl, put in a generous pinch of salt, a dust of pepper and half a teaspoon of German or French mustard. Now add enough cider vinegar to fill the spoon and mix spices and vinegar together with a fork. Sprinkle on salad and fill the spoon twice with olive oil. Mix with salad until every leaf is covered with the dressing. Serve with more French bread.

Cheese is the next course. Neufchatel or Dutch cheese may be served with brown bread and jam. Some fresh fruit—an apple, pear, peach or orange, according to the season comes next and then a wee cup of strong black coffee.

LATEST IN STYLE FOR WOMEN

Paris, Feb. 16.—Serge frocks are coming in for their usual share of popularity, in spite of the season's large showing of unusual and beautiful materials.

Out of hundreds of wonderful fabrics, the old familiar serge is very often chosen by fashionable women these days. Its qualities have been tried and not found wanting. It is comfortable for both warm and cool days, exceedingly durable and always smart. That is why it is particularly good at the present moment all along the Riviera. It comes in frocks, coats and ensembles cut in the newest fashion.

One has to look far and long for anything lovelier than white serge, especially for winter wear in sunny climes. Blanche Lebourvier is showing a delightful model trimmed with bands of yellow and a cape lined of the same. The serge is of the finest rib. Cut on sports lines, there is a reseda green serge with jumper and pleated skirt. The collar and double band that goes down the front are in dull red suede which promises to be very popular for sports clothes in the spring. There are also narrow bands of it on the sleeves and at the waist line. The skirt is very short and is pleated with the smart wide pleats of the season.

Anna is showing a very charming serge dress with a bodice fitted by means of clever gores. The waist-line is almost normal and the skirt is very circular. It comes in Veronese green with pleated ruffles which form all the trimming there is. The collar may be worn high standing or low.

The old familiar blue serge comes in a Cote d'Azur model with a collar of white satin. There is a front panel and circular tunic with pleated bands to form the trimming on it and the cuffs. An original touch comes in the diamond-shaped pieces of serge that reveal white satin beneath and form a novel gilet.

A mauve serge that is good for both afternoon and sports wear has a high collar and side-closing with buttons. The box-pleated skirt is stitched to the hips and topped by a girdle of mauve suede. There is also a little set-in pocket on the blouse.

COLUMBIANA

Columbiana High school basketball teams journeyed to East Youngstown Saturday night and divided a double bill with the Memorial High teams at Penhale gym, the Columbiana girls winning easily, 26 to 13, while the boys lost 15-23. The local girls showed a reversal of form over the previous evening and held their opponents to three field goals.

Isadore Schindley of Cleveland spent Sunday here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Schindley and family, South Elm st.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Esterly were in Youngstown Saturday evening at the "Theatrical" show at the Park theater.

Kenneth Robbins has returned from his home at Augusta, Ohio, where he was called last week by the serious illness of his father.

Charles Buzard of Cleveland spent the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Ed Buzard, North Main st.

Mr. and Mrs. James Nolan and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Nolan were Belmont visitors Sunday.

In the boys game, after holding a lead throughout the game, the Columbiana boys lost out in the last few minutes. Babyak, a substitute guard for Memorial, making three baskets in the closing minutes.

The local teams have two scheduled games for this week also. On Friday evening meeting the Lisbon High teams at the Columbiana gym in what will probably be the last home games of the season. On Saturday night a return game will be played at Struthers.

Earlier in the season, the local boys managed to defeat the Struthers boys by one point, but Struthers has improved greatly since that time, so the Columbiana boys will do well to hold them to a close score.

Wednesday evening the Sorosis society will meet at the home of Mrs. C. E. Krumm, South Main st. Mrs. C. R. Todd will have a paper on "Mark Twain," while Mrs. S. S. Weaver will give a reading, a selection from his works. The usual discussion will be on American Literature, and will be led by Mrs. P. H. Felzer, Mrs. W. H. Britten and Mrs. J. S. Brown.

Mrs. S. S. Stewart and the Misses Blanche and Leila Beard were Saturday visitors of friends in Salem.

Tuesday evening the Central Markets will meet the fast Boardman A.

WELLSVILLE MAN SOUGHT HERE FOR SHOOTING CHARGE

Mike Graham Shot while On
Way to Work; Wounds
May Be Fatal.

FIVE SHOTS TAKE EFFECT IN BODY

Three Men on Veranda when
Shots Rang Out, Says
Wounded Man.

Salem police are aiding Wellsville police and county authorities in the search for Antonio Sazzo, an Italian, whom the Wellsville police believe to be the man who shot and probably fatally wounded Mike "Graham," an other Italian, on Commerce St., Wellsville, about 7 a. m. Tuesday.

Up to noon today the Italian name of the man who was shot had not been obtained. He was known as Graham, and while on his way to work one of three men, standing on a veranda above a butcher shop on the opposite side of the street, pulled a revolver and fired five times, each shot taking effect.

Graham was shot in the abdomen, arms and back, and is in the East Liverpool City hospital in a serious condition. Physicians hold out little hope for his recovery.

The man, who is married and has five children, was a Wellsville resident, and two weeks ago had a quarrel with Antonio Sazzo, who, the police believe, was the man who tried to murder Graham.

The three men fled after the shooting, and by the time persons attracted by the shots had searched the neighborhood and had called the police, no trace of the assailant could be found.

Graham, outside of having been wounded, would not talk, but the police immediately sent to Lisbon and Salem descriptions of Sazzo and asked that he be picked up. Wellsville was combed for him and Italian homes searched but he could not be located.

Following receipt of word of the attempted murder, Prosecuting Attorney R. M. Brooks left his home at East Liverpool and hurried to the scene. He is directing the investigation of the shooting.

Patrolman Paul Heckert of the Salem police force, who received the call here, watched incoming cars and trains but no one of the descriptions furnished came here. The police are continuing their watch here, however.

Deputies under Sheriff George Wright are combing county districts where they believe Sazzo may be in hiding.

SCOUTS RE-UNION OF KIP AND ALICE

Rhinelanders' Counsel Says
Reconciliation Is Ut-
terly Impossible

Melntosh, Fla., Feb. 15.—A reconciliation between Leonard Kip Rhineland and his mulatto bride, Alice Jones Rhineland, is "utterly impossible," in the belief of Judge Isaac N. Mills, counsel for Rhineland during the sensational court attempt of the young millionaire to free himself from the union.

Judge Mills, on a hunting vacation here today said that although nothing would surprise him after the truth between the Rhinelanders would be known, he should the Rhinelanders follow the Stillman course. Judge Mills was Mrs. Stillman's counsel also.

"Knowing young Rhineland as I do, I would say that a peaceful reconciliation with his wife is utterly impossible," Mills declared.

Reports from New York that he would have an important announcement pending upon the case to make upon his return there puzzled the lawyer.

"I don't know what that can mean," he said. "For the next step in the case as far as I know is merely awaiting court action on my motion for a new trial."

Dress Well But Not Swell Is Advice Offered Mere Man By America's Best Dressed Man

Note: To be judged "America's best dressed man" was the honor bestowed upon George H. Wright, of Huntington, W. Va., at the National Retail clothing convention in New York in 1924. He was selected again at the convention in Chicago in 1925. More than 2,500 well dressed men representing practically every city in the United States competed for the honor.
Mr. Wright is in Columbus attending the Ohio Retail Clothing association convention. The following is his own style message to men.

By GEORGE H. WRIGHT
Columbus, Feb. 16.—Dress well but not swell.
That is the secret of good dress, in my opinion. The best dressed men of today are those who wear clothes that fit their form and figure; clothes that blend in every detail both in color and in fabric.
Colors are good if they are blended correctly. Gaudy colors are not as a rule good, due to the fact that few men know enough about colors to blend them correctly.
But that is where the progressive merchant of today comes in. If he is on his job he will have experts in his store that are able to advise their customers concerning their dress for all occasions.

Acquitted In Murder Case, Man's Friends Kiss, Jabber Thanks

Akron, Feb. 16.—An amazing exhibition of Southern Europe's manner of showing delight occurred in Judge
E. H. Boylan's court when a jury returned a not guilty verdict in the murder trial of Isadore Dolein, better known as Mike Dolin.
He was charged with killing Lewis Vokovich, gas station attendant in Barberton, on the night of April 25, 1924.
The trial lasted two weeks. Dolin's friends shouted and kissed each other and him in their delight, then rushed to the bench and upon Dolin's attorney, C. G. Roetzel, shaking and kissing their hands and jabbering gratitude in their own language.

MEN IN NIGHTIES FAIL IN PROTEST

Robbed Klansmen would Stop
Priest's Teachings;
Board Stands Pat

Toledo, Feb. 16.—A status quo existed today in the break between the Toledo school board and the Ku Klux Klan which protested against the teaching of religion by a Catholic priest in the local public schools.
The priest instructs Catholic pupils
one hour a week in the Birmingham school.
Fifty robbed klansmen invaded the meeting of the school board last night and lodged an emphatic protest against the priest's teaching in school.
"There is one priest teaching Catholicism during school hours," the Klan leader said. "This is unfair to the Protestants who are denied the teaching of the Bible during school hours. Therefore as American citizens and living under the Stars and Stripes of the United States of America, we ask that this instruction of religion be stopped. We ask for an answer at once."
After Sept. Meeks admitted the charges were true and stated: "We would release Protestant children as well for religious instruction one hour a week, if the request were made." J. D. Robinson, acting president of the school board, said to the klansmen: "A protest coming in this form doesn't appeal to me. If you want to make a protest, come out in the open."

BURGLARS TAKE CLOTHES, FOWLS

The home of C. W. Pow of Middleton was robbed, according to a report filed with the office of Sheriff George Wright, and although the theft was committed a week ago, the report was not filed until Monday afternoon.
The poultry house of Mr. Pow was robbed of 90 blooded Plymouth Rock hens and there was taken from his home two valuable robes, a new blanket, men's union suit, a Winchester rifle and a pair of gold cuff buttons.

REPRISAL HINTED BY CAPT. FAIRFAX FOR VERA'S PLIGHT

Case of Countess Cathcart Enters Realm of International Politics

APPEAL OF VERA BEING REVIEWED

Letters Uphold Exclusion, Others Demand Persecution Cease.

London, Feb. 16.—The case of Vera Countess Cathcart entered the realm of international politics today.
Capt. G. J. Fairfax, conservative M.
P., announced that he would question foreign minister, Sir Austen Chamberlain upon the matter in the house of commons, and that he is conferring with the home office concerning "the expediency of instituting suitable reprisals."
Capt. Fairfax also asked the foreign office to institute negotiations with the United States to insure that the granting of a visa by an American consul is final guarantee of entry of a foreign citizen, unless an offense against the immigration laws is committed after the visa has been granted.

Appeal to be Denied

Washington, Feb. 16.—An adverse ruling was expected today or tomorrow from the immigration board of review on the appeal of Vera, Countess Cathcart, from the deportation order of the Ellis Island authorities.
The board is expected to adhere to its former ruling that countess is "undesirable" because she eloped and lived with the Earl of Craven as his common law wife for several years.
It will then be up to Secretary of Labor Davis to determine whether the countess is to be sent back to England or permitted to enter the United States.

The department mail bags were filled today with letters from all parts of the country, some demanding that the countess be admitted and that "persecution" cease, and many upholding her exclusion.
The Earl of Craven's unceremonious departure from New York to escape an arrest warrant authorized by the department apparently has closed the proceedings against him.

THREE ENTERED IN RACE FOR AUDITOR

John Burns, Elmer Walker
And Albert Ferren
Are Candidates

John T. Burns of this city, former county clerk, today announced his candidate for the Republican nomination for county auditor.
Burns, now secretary of the Church-
Budget Envelope Co., resided in East Liverpool until he became clerk of courts. He was with the Homer Laughlin pottery for ten years, later serving as city auditor. He was clerk of courts at Lisbon from 1921 to 1925, coming to Salem from Lisbon at the expiration of his term last summer.
Three Republicans are now entered in the race for county auditor to succeed Charles E. Hamilton, present auditor. Elmer E. Walker of Damascus, present deputy auditor who has served in that capacity for two terms
by appointment, is a known candidate for his chief's office. Albert W. Ferren, former mayor of East Palestine, also is a candidate.

Maccabees Will Stage Gripping Play, "Dream Of Queen Esther"

Several committees of Maccabees are at work on plans for the presentation of "A Dream of Queen Esther,"
a home talent show, on Wednesday and Thursday nights, Feb. 24 and 25,
at the Salem High school auditorium.
In this tale of ancient Persia some of the best amateur players in the city will have the leading roles, and the cast, a large one is now in the process of selection and will be announced soon.
The production will be under the auspices of the Women's Benefit Association of the Maccabees, and the Knights of Maccabees.
"A Dream of Queen Esther" is a gripping tale in which comedy and pathos fill every scene and the story is unfolded in a manner strikingly dramatic.
The queen tells of Mordecai, a Jew, loved by all, who dwells with his slave, Meesha, and his adopted daughter, Esther. Her, the chamberlain, summons him and tells him that the king is about to choose a wife from among the maidens of the kingdom and that Esther has been commanded to appear in the contest. Mordecai likes this for he believes Esther will be able to help her people who are held captive by the king.
The king, in disguise, has saved
the life of Esther, and she cherishes a high regard for the hero, who is

AMERICAN BUILDING SETS NEW RECORDS

New Constructions Exceed
Preceding Year Total
By 26 Per Cent

Washington, Feb. 16.—American building, regarded by economists as the surest barometer of the prosperity of the country, broke all records for normal years in 1925, the federal reserve board announced today.
New constructions amounted to approximately $6,600,000,000 and exceeded that of 1924 by 26 percent.
Experts consider the enormous building activities mainly responsible for business advances of a year already marked by the greatest industrial productivity in history.

Among the remarkable features of the board's survey was the fact that award of contracts in December was 11 percent higher than the preceding month. Normally contracts fall off the last month of the year.

FLAMES DAMAGE EQUITABLE LIFE INSURANCE HOME

Two Top Stories Destroyed
And Two Others Are

OFFICES IN GREAT BUILDING WRECKED

Fire Is Featured By Most
Spectacular Rescue In
New York History

New York, Feb. 16.—A spectacular fire swept through the 10-story Equitable Life insurance building, today injuring seven firemen and one workman and causing heavy property damage.
The fire apparatus in Manhattan
ag called to the fire.
The thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth stories of the building were destroyed and the thirty-third and thirty-sixth stories partly wrecked.
The building is one of the largest in the world.
The fire broke out at 4:30 this morning and raged for hours. It was brought under control shortly before 8 o'clock.
The heaviest loss was suffered by the American Smelting & Refining Co., whose valuable property on the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth floors was destroyed.
Many offices in the great building
was wrecked by fire and water.
The fire started in a pipe shaft which runs from the basement of the building to the roof. The flames burst forth from the shaft at various floors and tried the utmost efforts of the fire fighters.
One of Sights of New York
Four alarms were sounded, bringing all the fire apparatus of Manhattan, and some from Brooklyn and adjoining boroughs to the scene. Fire Chief Kenlon personally directed the fighting of the flames.
For a time it was feared that this roof, new modern structure would ruin the fate that befell the old equitable building which was destroyed by fire in 1912.
The new Equitable building, one of the sights of New York, has 5,500
windows and 65 elevators.
The fire was featured by one of the most spectacular rescues in the history of the department. Four men trapped in a three-story pent house on the roof of the towering structure were rescued by firemen who held ladders on their shoulders to make them reach an eight-inch ledge, to which the men had fled to escape the terrific heat. The rescued men were plumpers.
Chief Kenlon described the fire as
"the highest the world has known."
Fortunately, the fire broke out before the army of workers were in the various offices of the building. More than 300,000 are said to enter the building daily.
The fire was caused, it is believed, by a short circuit in the shaft. The amount of property damage could not be accurately estimated.

Civic organizations in Chicago have decided to develop and put in the field in that city an association in aid of criminal justice. The primary purpose of the new agency is to help protect the public from the professional criminal. For years criminals have made war on society in that city and have been defiant of the powers of government, city, state and national. Courts and officials have not been able to correct the lawless and many of the outrageous offenses have gone unpunished. It is no wise surprising that the city should seek additional strength that criminals may be brought to bay.

The mere formation of this new agency means little, even if it is financed to the extent of $500,000, according to reports. Other cities have had such organizations at work for years, spent large sums of money, but have not abolished crime or prevented crimes of violence in the streets and about the institutions. Such an agency can be made powerful and may be immensely important, but to have any positive advantage for the public there is need of skillful and wise direction.

The measure of good for the community from such an organization depends largely on the quality and caliber of men in control. Usually the plan is to employ a director. That individual may take his task seriously and put real work under way. In some places the position has been taken as a spigot berth for a glib speaker, who makes addresses at social and civic gatherings, becomes very much of a glorified publicity promoter, often for himself, but fails to make his work, or the force of his organization, add to the efficacy of officials or give strength to the administration of law in the courts.

If the volunteer organizations in opposition to professional criminals are to become leaders in promoting public safety they must adopt practical methods, direct their appeal to public sentiment stand by officials and courts, champion public rights, always as supporters of the established agencies of government. If the committee in charge merely aids in the dissemination of propaganda, makes some solemn declarations, issues some well written manifestos that are only clever publicity, the funds for the support of the organization will be largely wasted. A live organization has a real value.

BORN LUCKY

It was Thomas A. Edison's good fortune to be born with an overpowered addition for work. No heart ever panted for the water brook as he yearned for whatever job happened to be in hand. The racetrack, the golf course and the baseball game had no lure for him. Instead of looking forward to quitting time he ignored it. Now and then he would snatch a little sleep—probably more often than he is willing to admit—but he always begrudged the time it consumed.

To Edison, labor which other men regarded as an evil, became recreation. He was always too busy to worry, so that ebbing constituent had no power to harm him. As a consequence he could and did perform prodigies of labor in the busy years of his life and is still hale and hearty at seventy, taking a vacation only because his friends insist upon it.

The average man does not like to eat his bread in the sweat of his face. He toils tremendously by fits and starts. Then he goes fishing or hunting or mountain climbing or touring, according to his financial ability. Some of America's greatest hustlers have been also the world's greatest loafers. Others, too conscientious to take frequent vacations, have worn themselves out at the job. Edison never tires because he is always interested. His is a lucky life. If all men were like him this would be a happier world.

State Societies

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Washington, Feb. 16.—Perhaps one of the most distinctive social phases of Washington is represented in the various state societies flourishing here. Unquestionably no other one city in the United States has a population made up so largely of natives of other localities.

Since the World war, which brought so many to this city, this seems particularly true. When, in response to the query "where are you from?" a person replies, "here," the inquirer is apt to register surprise and remark, "how strange!"

It is but natural that those from distant states should long for companionship with others from the same states. It relieves that feeling of homesickness to be able to discuss the affairs and mutual friends of the hometown. Who does not enjoy a "do you remember" party? The various state societies are a direct outgrowth of the universal desire to mix with the home folks. When met in some distant place one's dearest enemy may become one's nearest friend.

As far as can be learned there are now between 20 and 25 of these state organizations. For the most part they are social organizations and exist for the purpose of bringing together those from the same state. As a rule they have monthly meetings during the congressional season. These may consist of a party having a musical program, a speaker and supper, or may be a dance card party or some special sort of celebration.

Vermont claims to be the first of these societies, having been organized in 1830, although one active worker in state societies says he found a record at the library of congress of a similar society as early as 1820. However, nothing definite can be found regarding this.

Organized Like Town Council. Whether the Vermont society was the first or not, it is unique in its present organization. Also it claims as members such distinguished persons as President and Mrs. Coolidge and Atty. Gen. and Mrs. Sargent. About five years ago the Vermont society was re-organized on lines of a town council. Its president is therefore called a moderator, the secretary is the town clerk and there is a town treasurer and collector of taxes. There is also a "constable." Atty. Gen. Sargent has a post similar to that which he filled for years in his home town council. It bears the imposing title of "dispenser of nourishment," and means that he is the guardian of pure food.

California claims one of the pioneer societies. The Californians organized in 1894 "to cement into a bond of closer friendship those Californians residing in Washington and to assist in the progress and development of our glorious state." There were 15 Californians at the first meeting which was held at the old Riggs House, long since demolished. Out of this 15 there are two members still living in Washington.

The Pennsylvania society is said to be one of the largest and has on its roster the names of three members of the cabinet—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, Secretary of the Interior Work, and Secretary of Labor Davis. Incidentally, it might be stated here that Secretary Work is a member of the Colorado society as well since he lived in that state a great many years. He is a member of the Pennsylvania state society by virtue of having been born and reared in that state.

The Ohio state society was organized in 1910 under the auspices of William Howard Taft who is its present president. Unlike a great many societies which began in a modest way with only a few members, this has 250 charter members. The birthday of this society—Jan. 20—was also that of William McKinley and ever since its founding an annual banquet has been held on that date. At this honor is paid those persons who became president of their country.

Questions And Answers

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Q. Which city is the largest, Mobile, Rock Island, or Davenport? C. T. A. The populations of the three cities mentioned in 1920 were: Mobile, Ill., 33,910; Rock Island, Ill., 40,073; Davenport, Ia., 61,262. All of these are fast growing cities.

Q. What is the most comfortable position for the feet when standing for a long time? J. C.

A. In tireless long standing, too in with the weight bearing foot.

Q. When a lightning stroke hits a rodged building is there a report or is the shock carried off silently? C. M.

A. When lightning stroke occurs on a rodged building, thunder will follow. However, at least 98 per cent of the value of a system of lightning rods is in the function of allowing the electrical emergency to fuse off from the points of the lightning rods, thus preventing the ill electrical stress between cloud and earth, and when this is prevented the stroke is prevented. Lightning rods allow the current to pass or fuse off from the points, leaving the building in a normal electrical condition, yet there is a possibility of a lightning stroke which if it should occur would be much lighter than without any means of protection, and the rods should carry this stroke to the ground.

Q. From which direction are the prevailing winds in tropical countries? C. L. K.

AMUNDSEN SAYS HE'LL FIND POLE

Noted Explorer Confident
His 1926 Flight Will
Be Successful

Los Angeles, Feb. 16.—Capt. Roald Amundsen, noted explorer, is confident his 1926 non-stop dash to the North Pole will be crowned with success.

Further, he believes that vegetable and animal life exists at the pole and possibly that human descendants of families on whaling ships lost in the frozen north years ago, may inhabit the polar regions.

"I am interested, naturally, in locating the magnetic pole but the discovery of land in the far north and exploration of that vast unknown territory has a great appeal to me," the famed explorer declared.

Geographical research with the principal object of the 1926 flight, to start May 1.

Amundsen's attempt for the pole discovery will start from Rome about May 1. Lincoln Ellsworth, the American, who was a scientist with the explorer in his unsuccessful voyage into the north last year, will be his associate in the new attempt.

"Col. C. S. Noble, noted Italian flyer, will pilot the ship in our new flight," the explorer said. "The ship is 165 yards in length and is equipped with three engines of 250 horsepower."

The expedition will be made of 18 men, a dirigible about one-third of the inflated Shenandoah will carry the Amundsen party. From Rome the explorers will fly to Paris, then to London, across the ocean to the American continent and then to Spitzbergen, where a harbor and mooring mast are now under construction.

Capt. Amundsen declared the flight from Spitzbergen over the North Pole should not take more than 65 hours.

Land For Norway
Any land discovered on the flight will be claimed in the name of Norway, the exploration being made directly under the auspices of the Aero Club of Oslo, Norway.

Capt. Amundsen declared he would not be a bit surprised to find human life at the pole or in the close vicinity.

He discussed the wrecking of many whaling boats in the rebound regions and said he did not think it improbable some of the shipwrecked families had escaped death and settled in the far north.

More than 100 whalers have disappeared in the region which will be covered in part of the new flight, the explorer said.

The indictment was returned before Judge D. C. Westenhaver just before 11 o'clock.

Brill was the first man to be taken into custody when Judge Killitt ordered a probe of alleged jury tampering during the second trial of Kirby and is the fifth to be indicted.

PEOPLE WILL SHOP AND COMPARE

Our advertisements are causing a lot of comment, because we do not quote prices or mention merchandise. In fact, we believe that we are the only Furniture store in this section that does not advertise prices or hold "sales" etc.

Our argument is that people will shop and compare—and that's all we want. Prices and merchandise here will speak for themselves. What's the use of broadcasting elaborate descriptions and bargain prices that only sound good on paper and that can be said by anyone who pays for advertising space.

We quote no prices, we give no descriptions, print no misleading statements, in fact we tell you nothing about our furniture—but we do leave the decision entirely to you, after you have visited our show rooms.

Marriage Licenses

After a marriage license had been refused the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Blackwood of Leetonia and Edward Sullivan of Lisbon, when they went before Probate Judge Lodge Riddle, Monday, the young couple immediately left for New Cumberland, W. Va.

Mr. Blackwood trailed his daughter to Lisbon, and believing the young couple would go to New Cumberland, telephoned the clerk of courts there to refuse a marriage license to the couple should application be made, but was informed the license "had been granted an hour ago."

A marriage license has been issued to Victor Bashaw of Newell, W. Va., a former resident of East Liverpool and Miss Eleanor Buchheit of East Liverpool, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Buchheit. They are to be married by Rev. Fr. Walsh of East Liverpool.

Burkett Monday evening at her home, Jennings ave., the event coming as a surprise to the honorees. Beautiful gifts were presented Miss Morgan and Miss Gibbs by the guests.

Four tables were in play in the bridge games and the prize winners were Miss Lenore Starr, Mrs. Miriam Bumbaugh and Miss Myrtle Windle. A lunch was a concluding pleasure.

Entertains at Luncheon

Bouquets of spring flowers lent their beauty to the table and through the home at a 1 o'clock luncheon given Saturday by Mrs. S. B. Todd at her home, Garfield ave. The favors were Valentine heart shaped boxes filled with candy.

SCHOOL CLASSES TO GIVE CONCERT

Announcement Is Made As Four Seniors Speak At Assembly

The music classes of the High school under the direction of the music instructor, Miss Grace P. Orr, will give a concert in the High school auditorium tonight.

This announcement was made by Principal W. F. Simpson, at the assembly of the students Tuesday morning. Tickets for the concert can be obtained, free of charge, from any member of the music classes.

Four more senior speeches dealing with opera, women in politics, submarines and radios were given this morning.

The first speaker was Bernice Dickinson, who chose for her subject "The Story of Faust, the Opera." She stated that "Faust" is one of the most beautiful operas, and she gave a very good account of the origin of the opera.

Dorothy Dougher talked on, "Women and Politics." "In the early times," said Miss Dougher, "women held the position of slaves. Connecticut was the first state to give suffrage to women and it took many years of hard work to convince the United States that women should be in politics. Their ideals for the betterment of mankind and world peace are better than those of men," stated the speaker.

A most interesting talk was given by Clarence Davidson on "Submarines." Contrary to our belief that the submarine is a recent invention, said the speaker, "the first submarines were known about 400 B. C., but these, however, were useless in fighting. They have reached such an advanced stage that they are now important in naval warfare." Mr. Davidson predicted that in the next 20 years the submarines would be used for freight and passenger service.

"Amateur Transmitters," was the subject discussed by Robert Davis. He is at present about 500,000 amateur transmitters. "If it had not been for these," he said, "we would not have some of the many conveniences of radio today. Amateurs should be given some consideration."

NEED BIG HALL IF 125 PERSONS FACE THE COURT

Cleveland, Feb. 15.—If, as the government expects 125 persons are indicted for conspiracy, in connection with the operations of an alleged nationwide conspiracy, officials in the federal building were wondering today where they would be tried.

It was pointed out that according to present plans but one indictment would be returned, and it was planned to try all defendants at the same time.

The Public Hall, seating 13,000 persons, was said to be about the only place in Cleveland with ample facilities for prisoners, court attendants, witnesses, newspaper men and the curious throngs, and it was said that in all likelihood it would be engaged.

A number of witnesses, including two women, arrived from Philadelphia today to appear before the grand jury in connection with the probe. The jury, however, was busy with the jury tampering investigation and did not hear any of them.

HELEN'S FATHER SEES DIFFERENT SCORE NEXT TIME

Berkeley, Cal., Feb. 16.—"Helen will play better next time. She is bound to win eventually. I look for a different result at Wimbledon in June."

This was the comment made by Dr. C. A. Willis, Berkeley physician, and father of the American tennis ace, when told today that his daughter had been defeated by Miss Lenglen, 6-3 and 8-6.

Dr. Willis listened to the running description of the match over the radio.

Town Clock Keeping Good Time But Big Hammer Won't Strike

Persons who listen for the striking of the clock in the tower of City Hall have been noticing its quietness for several days, and will continue to miss its tolling for a short time, at least.

The frame which holds the hammer has rotted after many years of service and the hammer will not strike.

"Old Reliable" itself is working the same as usual, within a second or two of the correct time, if not exactly on the dot. Loren, French local scientist and astronomer, who takes care of the big timepieces, said today:

"The wooden frame several days ago became so rotten it could not support the hammer, and Mr. French, who inspects the clock each day, decided to wait until more moderate weather to repair it, for considerable work will have to be done."

In the ten years or so that Mr. French has been in charge of the clock it has seldom failed to tell the correct time and run out the time of day. "It's a good clock and it's still working good," the caretaker said today.

Miss Wills Defeated In Women's Doubles

Cannes, France, Feb. 16.—Though evidently suffering from exhaustion, Miss Lenglen, with the aid of her partner, Miss Ditt Vlasto, his afternoon made her day of victory complete, defeating Helen Wills and Miss Contoslavos 6-4 and 8-6 in the finals of the women's doubles of the Carlton club tournament.

Dream Saves Lives of Eight

Miss Fern Hodson, 20, "waking up from a vivid dream in which she was trapped by fire, discovered the Hodson home in Kansas City, Mo., was ablaze, and was able by her courage to save the lives of eight other members of the family before the house fell in ruins.

NAVAL AVIATION PLANS APPROVED

Washington, Feb. 16.—The house naval affairs committee today tentatively approved a five-year naval aviation program calling for the expenditure of $100,000,000 for 1,000 planes and two dirigibles, which would be three times the size of the wrecked Shenandoah.

The total appropriation was about three fifths of the amount originally asked for by Rear Admiral William A. Moffett, chief of naval aeronautics.

RAILROADS MAKE NEW RECORD FOR FREIGHT MOVED

Washington, Feb. 16.—Heaviest freight traffic of any December in history was handled in the final month of last year by the Class I railroads, the bureau of railway economics announced today.

The total was 37,568,884,000 net ton miles, an increase of 2,863,136,000 net ton miles, or 8.2 percent, over December 1924.

The eastern district showed an increase of 8.5 percent, the southern district, 11 percent, the western district, 6.6 percent.

Volume of freight in 1925 was 456,264,967,000 net ton miles.

TRAIN'S PLUNGE OVER HILL KILLS ONE PASSENGER

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 16.—One man was killed and another perhaps fatally injured when the engine and six cars of No. 19, crack Lehigh Valley express train, plying between New York and Buffalo, plunged over an embankment at Newport crossing ten miles from here, today.

FORCED TO DRIVE BANDITS, HE SAYS

Ohio Garage Owner Is Held Prisoner After Aiding Bandits to Escape.

Columbus, Feb. 16.—Columbus police and Franklin county deputy sheriffs were securing this county today in search of the five bandits who early yesterday burglarized the Metropolitan bank of Lima and escaped with $4,000 in cash and securities.

Officials started a search here when it was learned that the bandits forced Milo Brackney, a St. Johns garage owner, to drive them to this city.

Brackney told police he was held prisoner in a private garage here after he had been forced to drive the bandits when their car was wrecked near St. Johns.

He could furnish little information as he was kept blindfolded during his imprisonment and the bandits did not talk in his presence.

unknown to her. For this reason she hesitates to present herself before the king as she hopes to become the wife of the man who saved her life. Mordecai, however, pleads with her to go into the contest for the sake of her people. While she hesitates, she falls asleep and eight heroes of ancient history appear and give her advice.

As the second act starts the scene is in the palace of King Ahasuerus. The king is telling his chamberlain about the unknown maiden whose life he saved, and expresses the wish she will enter the contest.

The contest is on. All applicants for the crown are rejected and then Esther appears, is recognized by the king, is chosen and is crowned queen.

In the third act the king, nine years have elapsed—his neglecting Esther, and falling under the spell of Haman a villain orders that all Jews are to be slaughtered. Mordecai comes running to Esther and pleads with her to seek a change of the order. Esther is warned by her maid she is liable to death herself if she appears before the king without permission.

Esther decides to help her people, despite the probability of being slain, saying, "If I perish, I perish." The climax of the play is withheld, but it is a suitable ending for such a remarkable story.

Miss Dora D. Inman of Columbiana is directing the play.

University of California co-eds today because of charges made by Emil Hildebrand, head janitor of Stephens Union clubhouse, that campus girls threw their papers and refuse on the clubhouse floor and were "too lazy to keep the place clean."

"There's a reason for girls being careless in their club rooms," explained Miss Margaret Leisenring, president of the junior class and prominent in campus affairs who quickly took up the cudgel against "that old janitor person."

"The girls don't look on the clubhouse as a home, but rather as a recreation spot," Miss Leisenring said. "Girls would keep their homes entirely different."

Miss Rose Bloxham, treasurer of the Woman's Athletic Association, excused her co-ed associations on the ground of time.

"They would all make good housekeepers," she says, "and most of them are that already."

And that's how Mister Hildebrand was squelched.

"Nothing to say," was his only comment. "I'm through criticizing 'em."

Sick bodies made strong

"Stomach trouble had got me down to where I was unable to work. I had such pains after meals that I actually dreaded to eat. After my third bottle of Tanlac I was feeling fine." John R. Roberts, 1624 Superior Ave., Cleveland, Ohio.

After a spell of Grippe or cold, when your system is all run down and your legs are so weak they can hardly hold up your body, start right in taking Tanlac.

It's wonderful how soon you really do improve! Tanlac sails right in and puts the system in fighting trim. It cleans the blood, revitalizes the digestive organs, gives you an appetite for solid food and makes you feel like a new person.

Nothing will turn the trick quite as fast as Tanlac, made after the famous Tanlac formula from roots, barks and herbs. Buy a bottle today and get started back to full strength and vigor. Take Tanlac Vegetable Pills for constipation.

THREE ELDERS TAKEN BY DEATH IN THREE MONTHS

Lisbon, Feb. 16.—With the death of J. J. Rogers at Lisbon Monday morning, three elders of the Lisbon Presbyterian church have died within a few months.

The first was that of Dr. Hugh C. Maxwell who died suddenly last fall, and his death was followed by that of M. L. Forbes several weeks ago. Then came the death of Mr. Rogers, who was a life long member of the church, and an elder for the last 40 years.

Mr. Rogers was well known throughout the Ohio Synod and within the Presbytery of Michigan, where he was considered one of the most prominent members of that body.

The funeral of Mr. Rogers, which will be held in the Lisbon Presbyterian church, Lisbon, at 3 p. m. Wednesday will be in charge of the Rev. J. C. Struble, of Columbiana, a former pastor of the Lisbon church.

A Good used car is a good Investment

THERE IS A STRONG DEMAND for our used cars among people who formerly bought low priced new cars. One reason is that a good used car often has a higher resale value after a year's use than a new car bought for the same money. Protect yourself by buying your used car from a Buick dealer.

Criticizes Co-eds As Housekeepers But Is Promptly Squelched

Berkeley, Calif., Feb. 16.—Just because a girl scatters a few papers on the floor of the University of California Women's club rooms—or of any club rooms for that matter—is no reason why a crabby old janitor should up and say she'll never make a good housekeeper.

And, anyway, what does a janitor know about girls?

COOLIDGE FIGHTS FOR NOMINATIONS

Washington, Feb. 16. — President Coolidge served notice on the senate today that he intends to fight for his nominations.

It was announced that the White House that the nomination of Judge Wallace F. McCamant of Oregon, to a circuit judgeship, will not be withdrawn, as requested by administration leaders there because of the strong opposition to him.

Judge McCamant, who nominated Pres. Coolidge for the vice presidency at Chicago in 1920, recently created a senatorial furore by declaring he did not consider Theodore Roosevelt "a good American."
